		TABLE OF CONTENTS AND HIGHLIGHTS

INTRODUCTION
		Background on Determinate-Plus/Community Custody Board (CCB) Sentences.
TABLES P-A through P-G
		Tables displaying data related to CCB Sentenced Inmates.
	*	Child Molestation 1, Rape of a Child 1, and Rape of a Child 2 combined continue to make up nearly 70 percent of the CCB sentences.
		This has been fairly constant since 2007.
	*	White offenders are near 80 percent of the CCB inmate population, a markedly larger percentage than in the overall inmate population.
		This has been fairly constant since 2007.
	*	Hispanic Origin offenders are nearly 14 percent of the CCB inmate population.
		This percentage is up from 2010, and close to the 14 percent in 2007.
	*	Approximately 53 percent of the CCB inmates are less than 40 years old.
		This compared to 57 percent in June 2009, 59 percent in June 2008, and 61 percent in June 2007. This is a reflection of the aging of the CCB inmate population.
	*	Approximately 40 percent of the CCB inmates are eligible for release within the next three years.
		This percentage is up from 30 percent in 2007.
		Because offenders may have additional time added to their sentences if the Board finds them not releasable, this is not a clear indication of the number who will be releasing.
GRAPH		End of Month Prison Population of Offenders with CCB Sentences.
	*	The CCB inmate population grew by about 8 offenders a month in FY 2010.
		This compares to 12 per month in FY 2010, 16 per month in FY 2009, 15 per month in FY 2008, and 18 per month in FY 2007

CCB Offenders

GRAPH	Proportion of Inmates with Sex Offenses who have CCB Sentences.
	*	CCB inmates are becoming a higher percentage of all sex offenders in prison. They make up over 45 percent of the sex offender population.
			This compares with 38 percent in June 2009, 34 percent in June 2008, and 35 percent in June 2007. This is a reflection of the fact offenders have additional time added to their sentences if the Board finds them not releasable.
TABLES H-A through H-B
	Tables displaying data related to CCB Release Hearings held by the ISRB.
	*	The number of CCB release hearings increased by 17 percent in FY 2011.
			The average number of CCB Release Hearings held per has gone from 14 a month in FY 2008 to 22 a month during FY 2011.
	*	Close to 40 percent of the hearings continue to result in "releasable" findings.
			This has been fairly constant since 2007.
TABLE R-A through R-D
	Tables displaying data related to CCB Offender Releases after serving prison sentence.
	*	The average length of stay continues to increase. It is now at 46.0 months.
			It is now 51.6 months, this compares to 46.0 months at the end of June 2010, 39.9 months at the end of June 2009, 30.4 months at the end of June 2008, and 25.5 months at the end of FY 2007. This is a reflection of offenders with relatively long sentences now having first hearings and offenders who have had time added to their sentences having subsequent hearings.
	*	Offenders who commit "other sex crimes," those that become sex crimes by virtue of having a sexual motivation finding, continue to have the shortest average lengths of stay.
	*	Nearly 50 percent of released CCB offenders have completed the in-prison Sex Offender Treatment Program.

CCB Offenders

TABLES C-A through C-E
	Tables displaying data related to CCB Offenders Being Supervised in the Community
	*	The number of CCB offenders on community custody supervision increased by 42 percent in the last fiscal year.
		An 8 offender per month increase on supervision is the result of having approximately 9 offenders a month released from prison and approximately one a month either completing supervision or being revoked back to prison.
	*	Hispanic offenders make nearly 30 percent of these CCB offenders.
		This is reflected in the fact that close to 30 percent of CCB offenders are now in the custody of federal Immigration and Custody Enforcement (ICE) or have been deported.
GRAPH	Distribution of Supervision Status
	*	As the number of CCB offenders being supervised has grown, the distribution of supervision status has remained fairly constant.

INTRODUCTION

Determinate-Plus (CCB) sentences are given to certain sex offenders who commit crimes on or after September 1, 2001 (RCW 9.94A.712). The sentencing Judge sets a minimum term of confinement for the sentence. The maximum term is the statutory maximum for the specific offense. After prison, offenders with CCB sentences must serve on community custody until the end of the maximum term.

CCB offenders may be released from prison once they serve the minimum term. The decision to release the offender, or keep the offender in prison longer, is made by the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board (RCW 9.95.420). That decision is made after a release hearing. This is part of a process where the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board (Board):

- Gathers and reviews information about the crime and the offender.
- Meets with the offender and listens to what that person has to say.
- Determines if the offender is more likely than not to commit another sex offense if released.

If the offender is found not-releasable, the Board sets a new minimum term. The time added can not be more than 5 years. The offender will have another hearing at the end of the new minimum term. Sometimes, if the offender completes in-prison sex offender treatment, the Board holds a hearing before the new minimum term is up.

If the offender is releasable, that person transfers to community custody. Offenders in the community are supervised by the Department of Corrections. The offender must obey rules of supervision. Separate rules may be set by the Board, the sentencing Court, or the Department of Corrections.

If a CCB offender breaks any of the community custody rules, the Board is notified by Department of Corrections' staff. The circumstances of the situation are investigated by the Board. The Board may revoke community custody supervision in response to a violation by an offender. When an offender is returned to prison, the Board sets another new minimum prison term.

This report contains facts about offenders who have gotten CCB sentences. A companion report about PRE-July 1, 1984 indeterminate sentence offenders is also compiled by the Board.

NOTE: ".420" (RCW 9.95.420) hearings, also known as CCB Release Hearings, held in the institutions, take place to determine whether an offender with a Determinate-Plus/CCB sentence is releasable. Denial of release and setting an additional term of up to 24 months, or up to 60 months after July 1, 2007, must be based upon a finding by the Indeterminate Sentencing Review Board (ISRB) that a preponderance of evidence indicates the inmate is more likely than not to commit sex offenses if released with conditions.

In the event an inmate is found releasable, upon receipt of an acceptable release plan, recommended conditions, and an approvable residence, the Board will issue an "Order of Release to Community Custody and Supervision Conditions".
